Dear Judge,

I am Bridgette Feagins the mother of Darnell Feagins. My son (Darnell Feagins) has realized his wrong and is making conscious decisions now. Darnell is also upset with himself with his actions in life. Darnell is a better man. Darnell looking more to the future. He has goals that he is accommodating so he can live in today's society as a honest hard working man. Darnell has matured so much.

Darnell has had two different jobs since the beginning of his trail /conviction. The first job Darnell had was in Atlanta, Georgia (food packaging warehouse I think it was call Daiz). The second job Darnell had was in Bronx, New York still working in the food (Fresh Direct). Both of his jobs managers said Darnell is an excellent worker. Darnell's managers was training him for different types of machines (ex. Forklifts driver).

I told Darnell, Judge Matthews got into serious trouble and he decided to turn his life around. I told Darnell that anything is possible and he must trust and believe in God. I am asking you to give Darnell a chance.

Thank you for your time

SINCERELY,
Ms. Bridgette Feagins
